MEDIA ADVISORY

COUPLE CHARGED WITH POSSESSION OF 1,000 POUNDS OF MARIJUANA

- Suspects turned themselves in to DPD after major seizure last week

Last week the Chief Warren Evans made a major announcement and displayed 1,220 pounds of marijuana confiscated during two search warrants on the city's west side.

One of those locations was located in the 22000 block of Tireman, where Detroit Police narcotics officers seized 1, 000 pounds of marijuana. Suspects Roderick Wright (35) and his girlfriend Brandy Fleming (30) were not at home during the narcotic raid, but investigators submitted warrants for their arrests, which were signed by the Prosecutor's Office.

Both suspects turned themselves into Detroit Police on February 2nd and were arraigned today on charged with possession to deliver more than 45 kilograms of marijuana. The bond was set for suspects as follows: Wright - $100,000 (cash) and Fleming - $50,000 (10%). Their court date has been set for February 12, 2010 at 8:30 a.m.
